Please send me information on the following (check all that apply):

Ask-an-Alum Network Assist students in a variety of ways, without the obligation of maintaining an ongoing relationship. Attorneys in the Ask-an-Alum Network assist students with their interviewing or writing skills, discuss career goals and planning, or simply answer questions about their practice area. Email ed.coughlin@nyls.edu.

Mentor-Match Program You would be matched with one or more participating second-year student(s). This is a commitment to meet with your student(s) at least three times during the year to help them refine their career goals, share information about your law practice, refer them to fellow alumni and other professional contacts, and guide them as they enter the profession and learn more about the practice of law. Email ed.coughlin@nyls.edu.

Practice Interview Program Conduct 30-minute practice interviews with four students during a two-hour time slot in your office or at NYLS. Interviews are scheduled on a day and time convenient for you. Practice interviews are typically held directly preceding fall and spring recruitment, in February and July. Single interviews may also be scheduled throughout the year. Email ed.coughlin@nyls.edu.

Hire a NYLS student or recent graduate If you have any recruiting needs, for interns or entry-level attorneys, the Office of Career Services can help! You can specify your hiring criteria, the candidate application materials you require, and the manner and timeframe for receiving applications. Email ed.coughlin@nyls.edu.

Save the Date: Law Review Alumni-Student Networking Breakfast Thursday, March 7, 2013, 8-9:30am at New York Law School. Attend the Law Review's third annual alumni-student networking breakfast to meet fellow alumni and talk with students who are interested in the area of law you practice, answer their questions about becoming an attorney, and share advice for a successful job search. Students and alumni are seated at tables by practice areas and interests. Email law_review@nyls.edu.

Join the Steering Committee If you have an idea for a Law Review Alumni Network event, or are interested in hosting the 2013 fall reception at your firm or law office, we'd love to hear from you! Email the Alumni Network Co-Chairs at alumni@nylslawreview.com.
